COMMENTS:

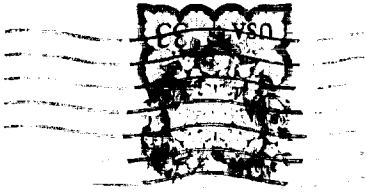

Please do not take away my right to have my individual needs met through specialized medications. A year and a half ago my life started unraveling when at 46 I became postmenopausal. I was unable to receive the prescriptions I needed in my area. My husband and I were both relieved when I found a specialized pharmacy to take care of my depression, insomnia, mood swings, hair loss, urinary atrophy, & vaginal dryness. I am a small person and don't need or want the medicine in a "one size fits all" capsule. My pharmacy monitors
